

Suzanne Mansell

*Vice President
Family Dynamics Consultant*

Suzanne Mansell is a family dynamics consultant for Wells Fargo Private Bank. Ms. Mansell is responsible for helping high net worth clients address family dynamics issues as part of their holistic wealth planning.

The Family Dynamics team helps families sustain their wealth across generations, by facilitating decision-making about the complex issues that arise as a result of substantial wealth. The team of highly experienced Family Dynamics Consultants works with families to navigate issues at the intersection of family culture, leadership development, and ownership. In addition, the team supports the Family Dynamics Resource Center, a multi-media library that promotes generational education through the use of Family Workshops and the Family Dynamics Knowledge Lab.

Prior to joining Wells Fargo, Ms. Mansell ran her own coaching and consulting practice working with family enterprises in the areas of leadership development and family governance. She provided educational workshops, facilitation, and coaching to multi-generational leadership teams regarding family business leadership strategies, teambuilding, succession planning, and structuring family communication for harmony and business success. Ms. Mansell was also extensively involved in programming, advising, and research initiatives as Program Director of the Family Business Center of the Quinlan School of Business at Loyola University Chicago. As a leader in the field of family business, she has been published in several magazines and journals.

Ms. Mansell earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature and Psychology from the University of Illinois-Urbana/Champaign, as well as a Juris Doctor and Master's of Business Administration degree from Loyola University Chicago. She resides in Berkeley, CA with her husband, Jeremy, and beagle, Cindy Mae.
