

ANDY UNANUE
MANAGING PARTNER
AUA PRIVATE EQUITY PARTNERS

Andy Unanue is the Managing Partner of AUA Private Equity Partners, LLC and a member of AUA Private Equity's Investment Committee. Prior to establishing AUA Private Equity, Mr. Unanue founded AU & Associates, LLC, the family office for the Unanue family. Previously, he held various positions with Goya Foods, Inc., including Chief Operating Officer.

Mr. Unanue currently serves on several corporate boards including: Goya, Raymundos Food Group, Tijuana Flats Restaurants, VStar Entertainment, Water Lilies, Gel Spice Company and Associated Supermarket Group. Additionally, he serves on several not-for-profit boards including his family's charitable foundation, The C&J Unanue Foundation, is a member of the University of Miami's President Council, the University of Notre Dame's Cavanaugh Council and on the Columbia University Medical Center's Board of Advisors.

Mr. Unanue received his M.B.A from the Thunderbird School of Global Management and his B.A. from the University of Miami.

AUA Private Equity Partners, LLC is a New York-based, operationally-focused, lower middle-market investment firm providing strategic capital to companies in the consumer products and services sectors, with a particular focus on family-owned businesses or companies benefiting from the growth of the U.S. Hispanic population. AUA Private Equity makes equity investments of $20 to $75 million in companies that generate in excess of $5 million in EBITDA. AUA Private Equity currently manages approximately $275 million of capital (as of 12/31/2017). For more information on AUA Private Equity, please visit www.auaequity.com.